My best Friend is you Charlie and my Favorite Teacher

is Mr. Bristol

Dear Chris,

You know Mr Bristor is really a cool guy. It's great that he comes in and talks to us in the senior lounge. I really enjoy his war stories. Whenever we pass he'll always say, "How ya doin Charlie?" He's friendly.

Students don't get mad at him now since he's quit giving out D-halls. (I liked him even when he did) Do you remember when he used to coach Britor-ball? Those were the good old days. But on the serious side, he is a dedicated teacher who really cares about his students and the school. When he teaches you learn history without feeling he's beating it into you.

In my reading I found a quote that describes him well:

Beauty depends on simplicity - I mean the true simplicity of a rightly and nobly ordered mind and character.

He is a fool who seriously inclines to weigh the beautiful by any other standard than ~~that~~ that of good.

The good is the beautiful.

Grant me to be beautiful in the inner man.

Why Does She Keep Saying Tay Twa?

Dear Charlie, Hi! Today is my 11th birthday.
 We went out for dinner.
 My big brother couldn't go 'cause he had too much history homework. GROSS!
 His teachers sound funny to me. One always says "bet your mind right," Another says
 "alright lads," and another greets his class "Hi gang!" everyday. One teacher calls his middle school students "grubby little urchins" Upper school history sounds like more fun than ours.
 Bye for now, Christy

Molarity . . . Cosines . . . HELP!

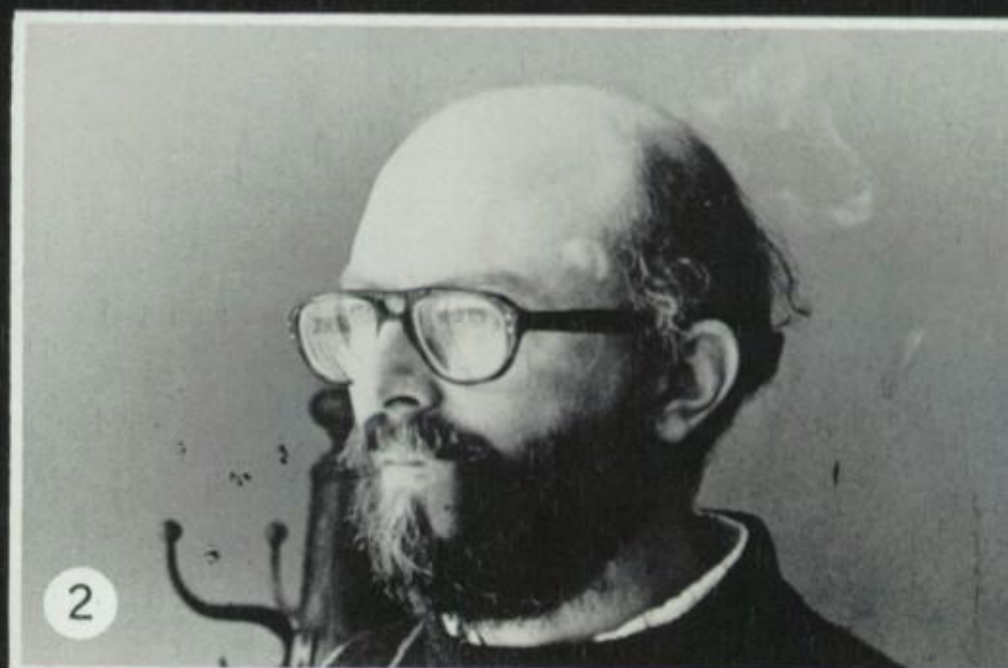

Dear Christy
 Today we learned about negative numbers.
 Boy are they hard! Maybe you can help me with them, my big brother won't. He's a real creep. He's taking Trig from someone ~~named~~ named Van. Another math teachers says "May we be seated." "Now folks" is another pet saying at the math department. Well,
 I gotta go. Bye
 Charlie

Dear Charlie,
 Hi. I'm having a birthday party. Can you come. Ask your mom.
 Did you finish your science project? I got help from one of the upper school teachers, her nickname is quail and she looks in the trash cans for kicks. There was a tall guy down there named Bucky drinking Mt. Dew.
 He has kids named bucksons.
 Another lady named Polly Peptide was running all over the science building. My brother went to Iceland with the science teachers. She Does School in the Woods. I can hardly wait till then.

CLUBS

Dear Charlie,

There was a master class today. In case you don't know it was for modern dance. It was good - except now I'm so sore I can't walk. Are you going to be in OUR TOWN? I'm one of the dead people. I think I've got four whole words to say! Ugh! I'll scare everyone off.

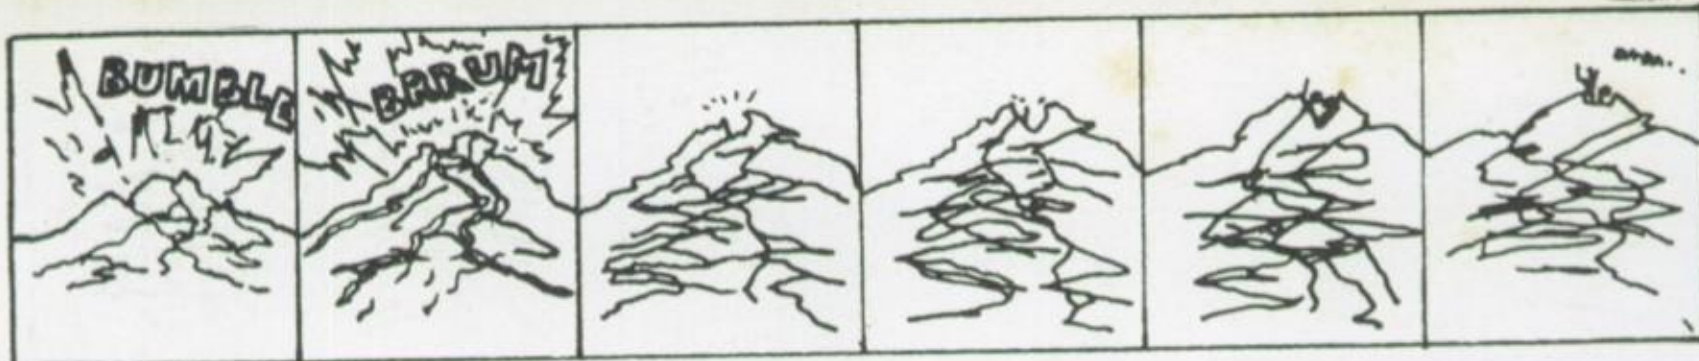

See ya,
Christy

Dear Christy,

I asked someone in my carpool. They said it was a club full of crazy people. I think so too. But he said they help the school too. I want to play soccer when I get older, its fun.

Charlie.

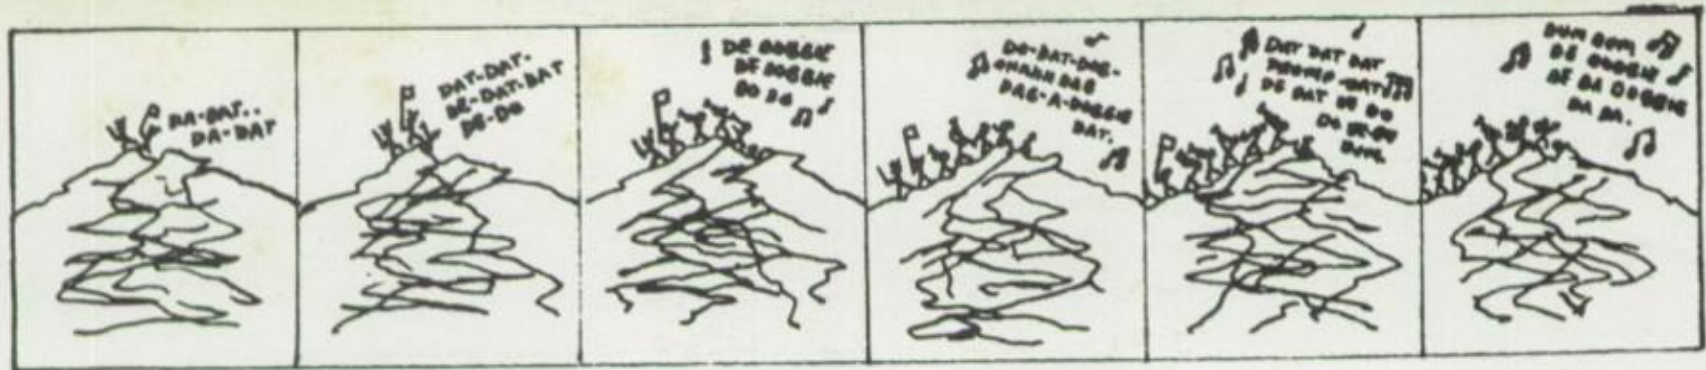

Aquilifer

Aquilifer is a girls' honorary service organization. Its purpose is to serve the school, to set an example for citizenship and scholarship, and to boost school spirit. Sports

Dear Charlie,

You used to answer my letters, but all that you are interested in is being a jock hero. What is it about sports that makes you so "gung ho" about it?

Please write back and let me know what I'm missing out on.

Love,
Christie

Dear Christie,

Sorry I haven't written you, but the J.V. sports have really been tough & I spend a lot of my time watching the varsity sports. Boy, are they great!

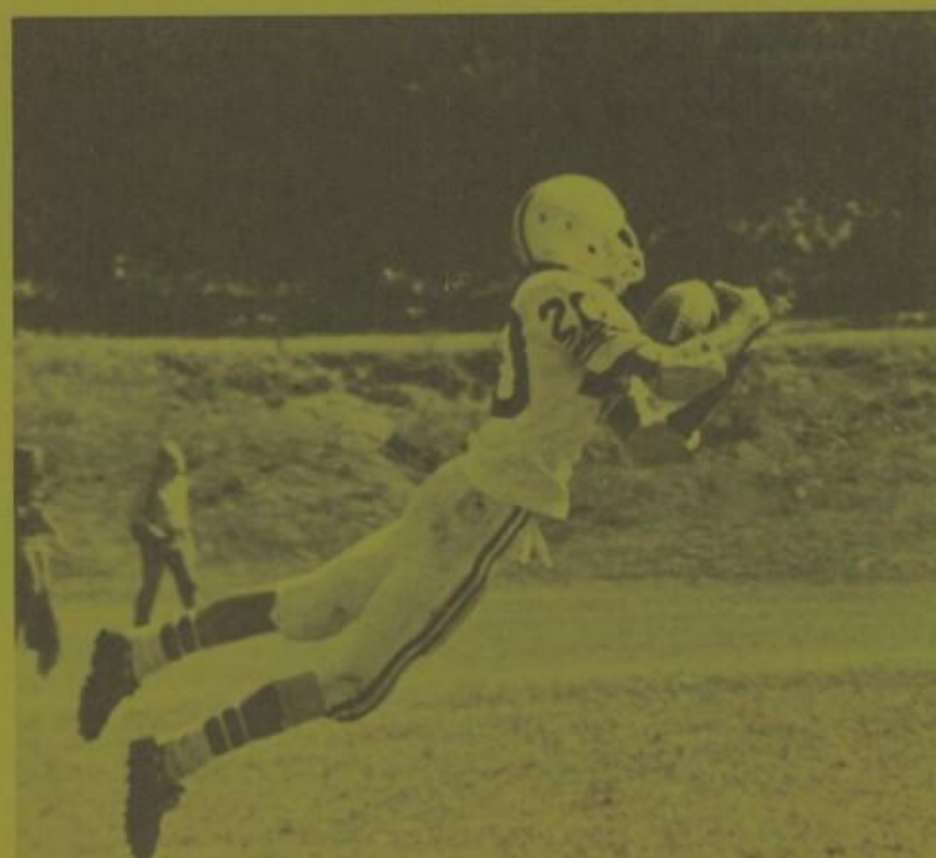

Here are some pictures that will give you an idea of what team sports is all about. Gotta go down to the gym now & work out for our game tomorrow.

See ya 'round
Charlie

FINE ARTS

Dear Charlie,

Remember that time we were going to music and we saw all those people with greasy hair and prunes in there mouths? Well, I saw them again today - Boys have funny legs. One day I saw a bunch of people with wagons and bathrobes, too. Upper School Sure seems like fun. I can't wait. I want to be a cheerleader.

From,
Christy
...

Dear Chris,

I'm working on lights - I'll shine a green one on you so you'll look like a frog.

Charlie

Dear Charlie,

I can remember when we didn't have any fine arts hardly. My sister said she didn't have any of the stuff we have now. We really have a lot of chances now--and more when the new building is finally done.

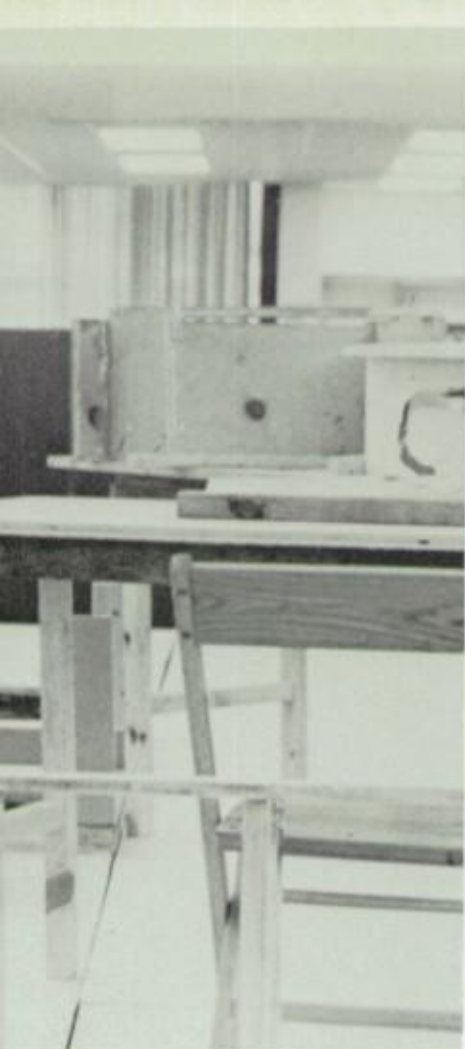

I was up in the art house the other day and they had all kinds of pottery, paintings, mobiles, tie-die, and shelves with stuff on them. They put stuff in the L.C. sometimes. I want to take Clay I next term . . .

Drama has really gotten big too. All of our class is practically taking over the club. But we've helped do all sorts of stuff --BOTTOM'S DREAM, Dr. Suess, ANNE FRANK, OUR TOWN, stuff at the International Dinner. It's fun. I helped with the folk dancing at the International Dinner-- they botched up the music, but it was still fun.

I'm taking Novelty Dance in gym. So I thought I'd go to the master class taught by Alvin Ailey--boy was it hard! That lady was strict, but I guess you have to be if you want to do something good. I've heard there's going to be a great concert this spring. They have dance as a varsity sport now--they meet at 3:00 and everything . . .

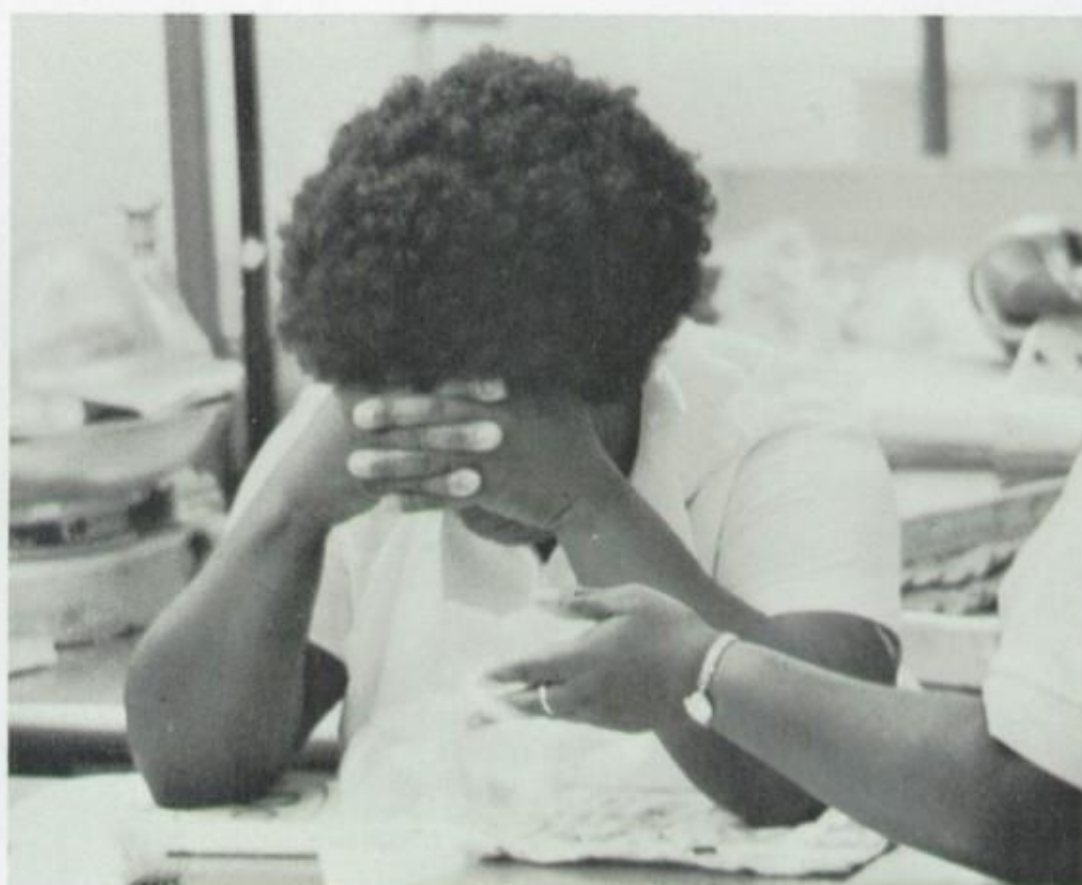

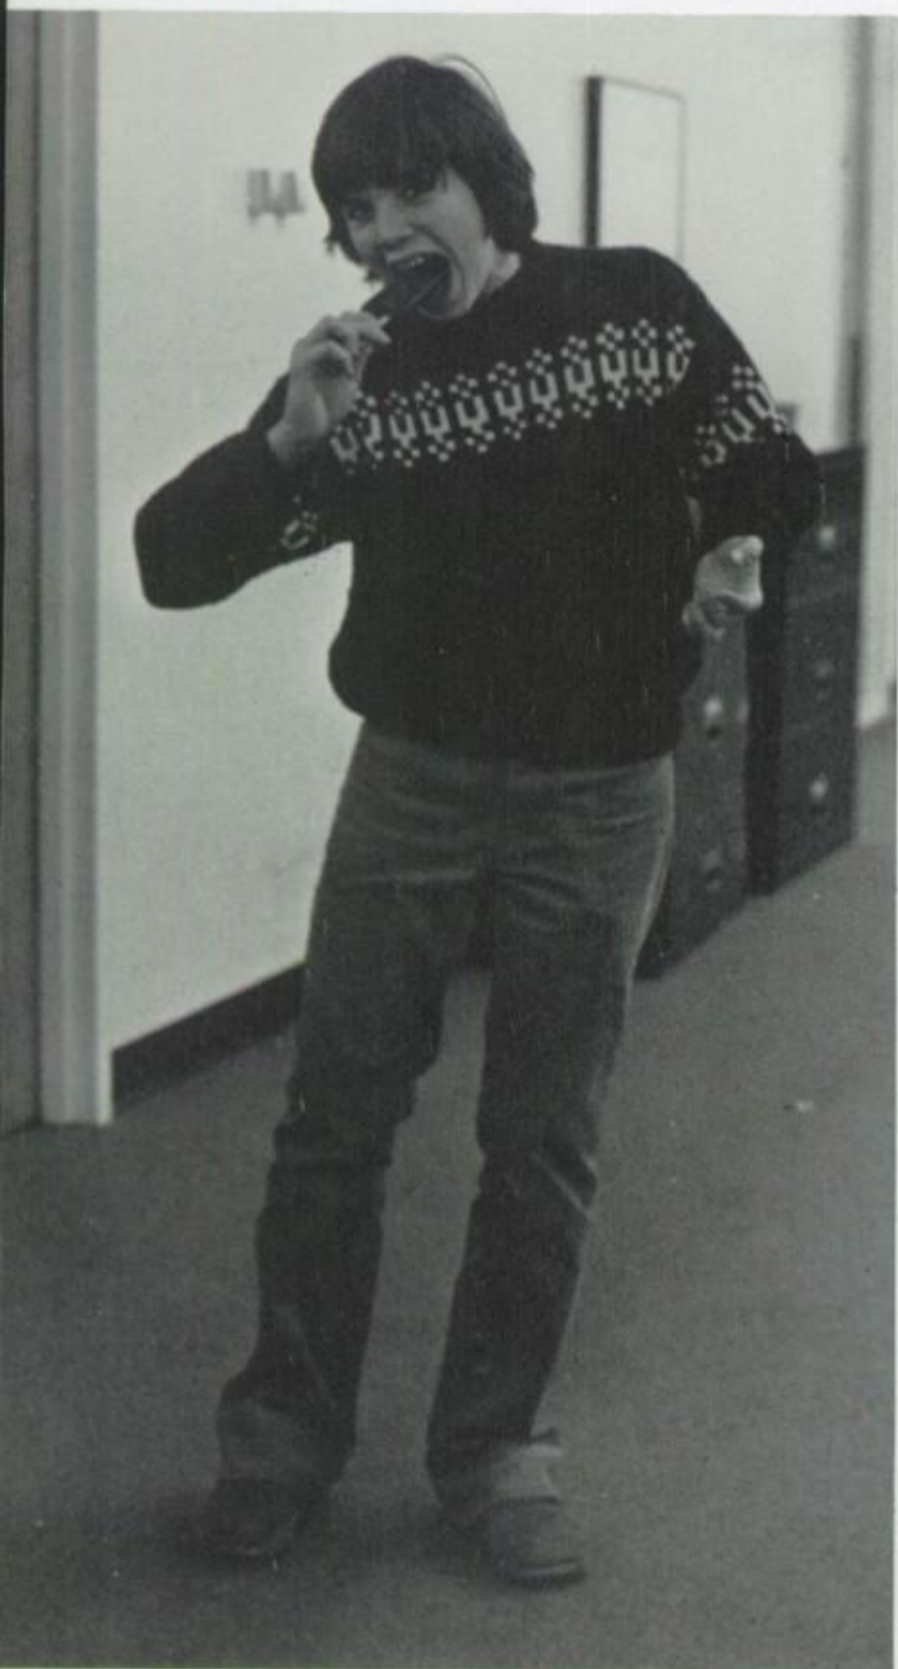

Chorus this year has been good. I don't blame them for being mad about that concert in the L.C. before X-mas. It was really bad that people wouldn't be quiet and listen. Don't you think so? I think there are 3 choruses. The Lower School is doing neat things too. Mrs. Wall lets them dance and all. They even play recorders. I saw 'em all walking around with recorders and they looked like long green sticks, but they just had cases on 'em . . .

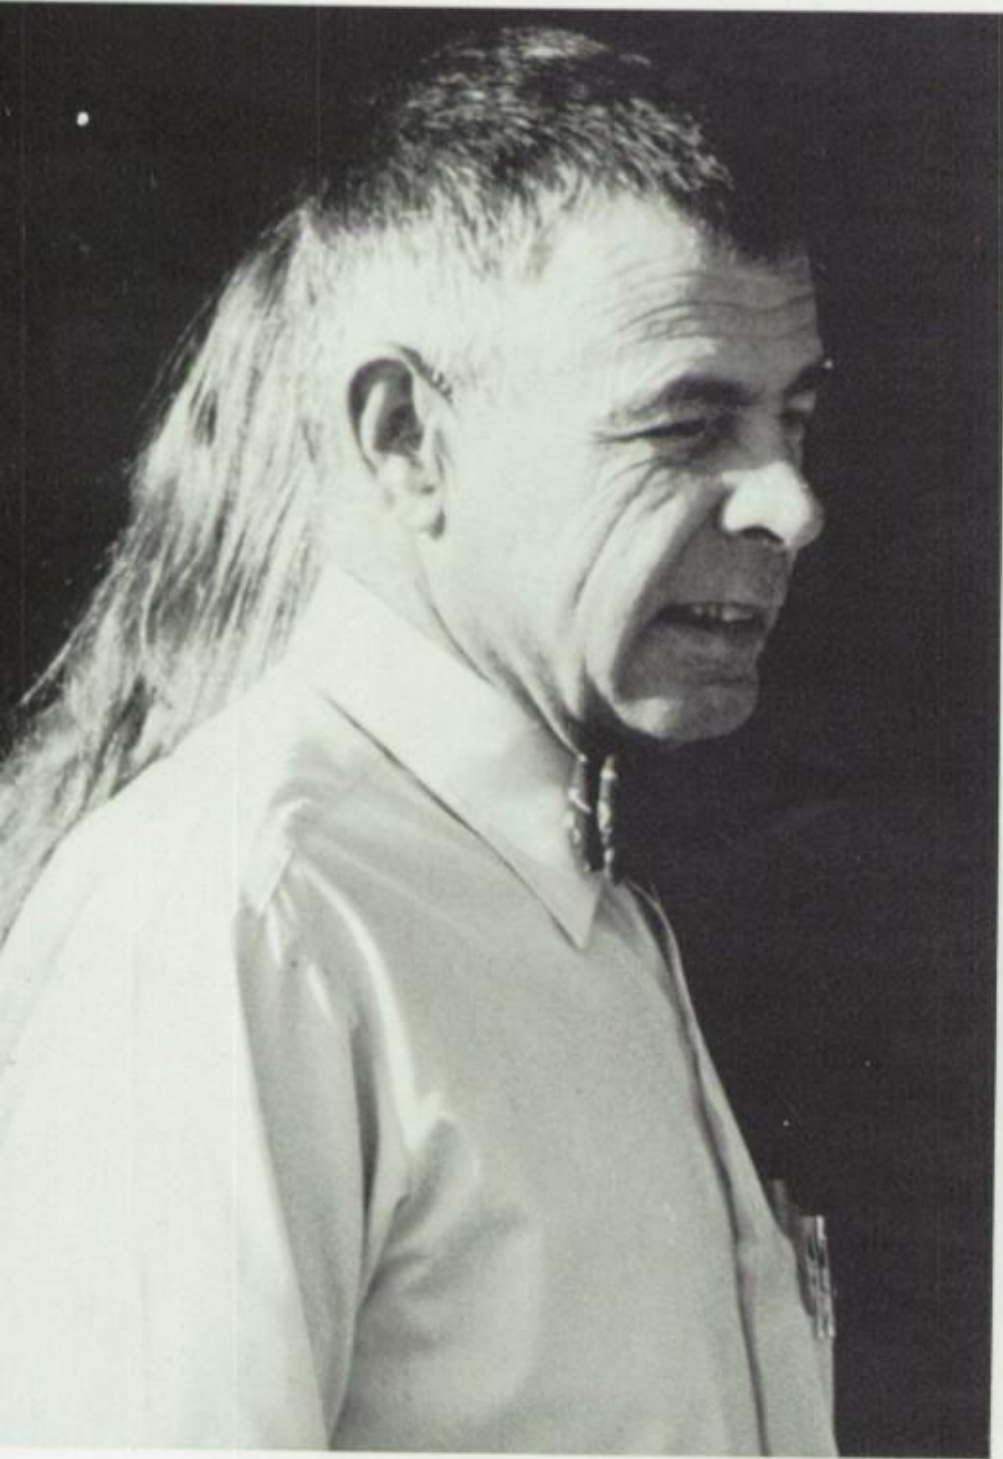

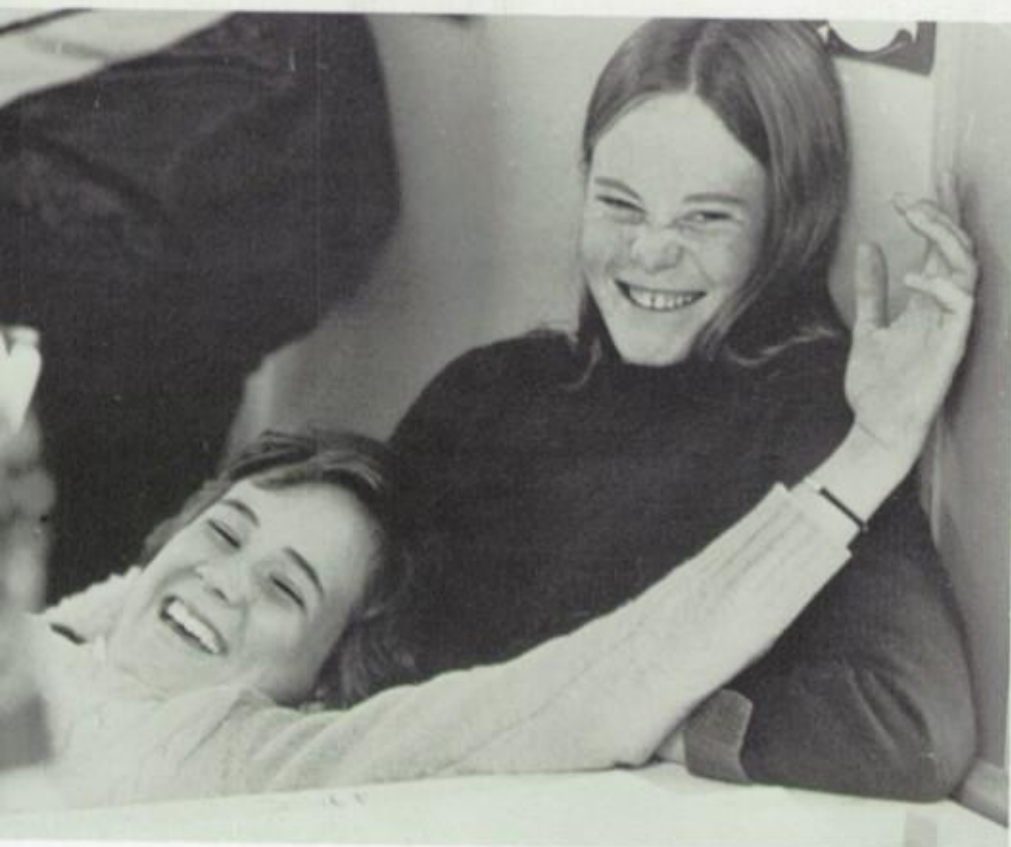

I can't wait for the new buildings--I'm gonna sign up for all those good things so I can be in that building. Do you know what alls gonna be in it? A chorus room, a band-room, big studios, a dance room, private practice rooms and all kinds of neat stuff--Mom told me. Do you like any of this--I think its fun.

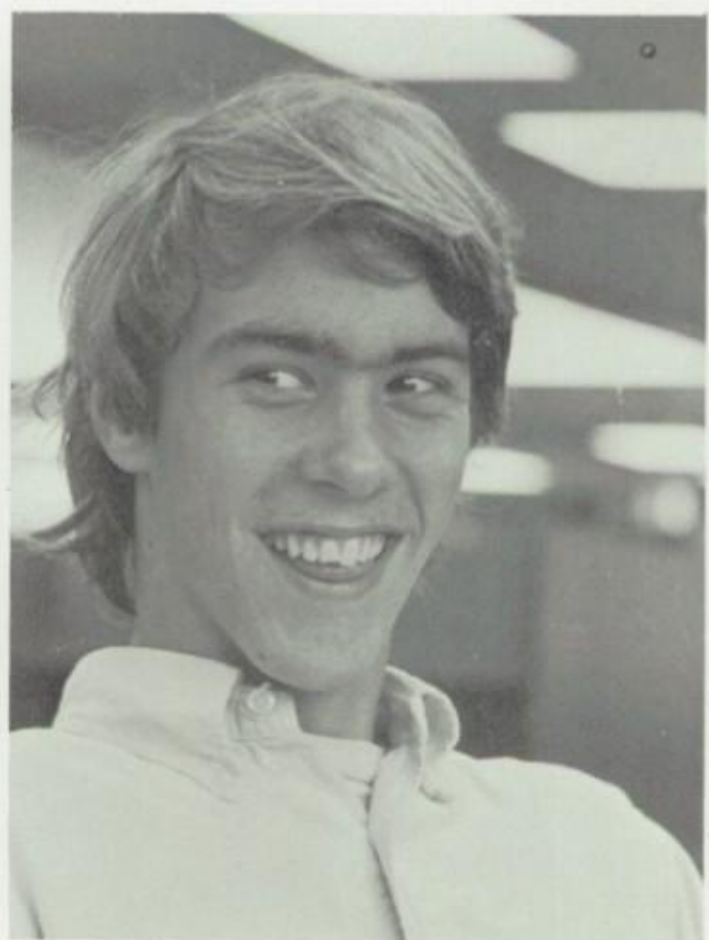

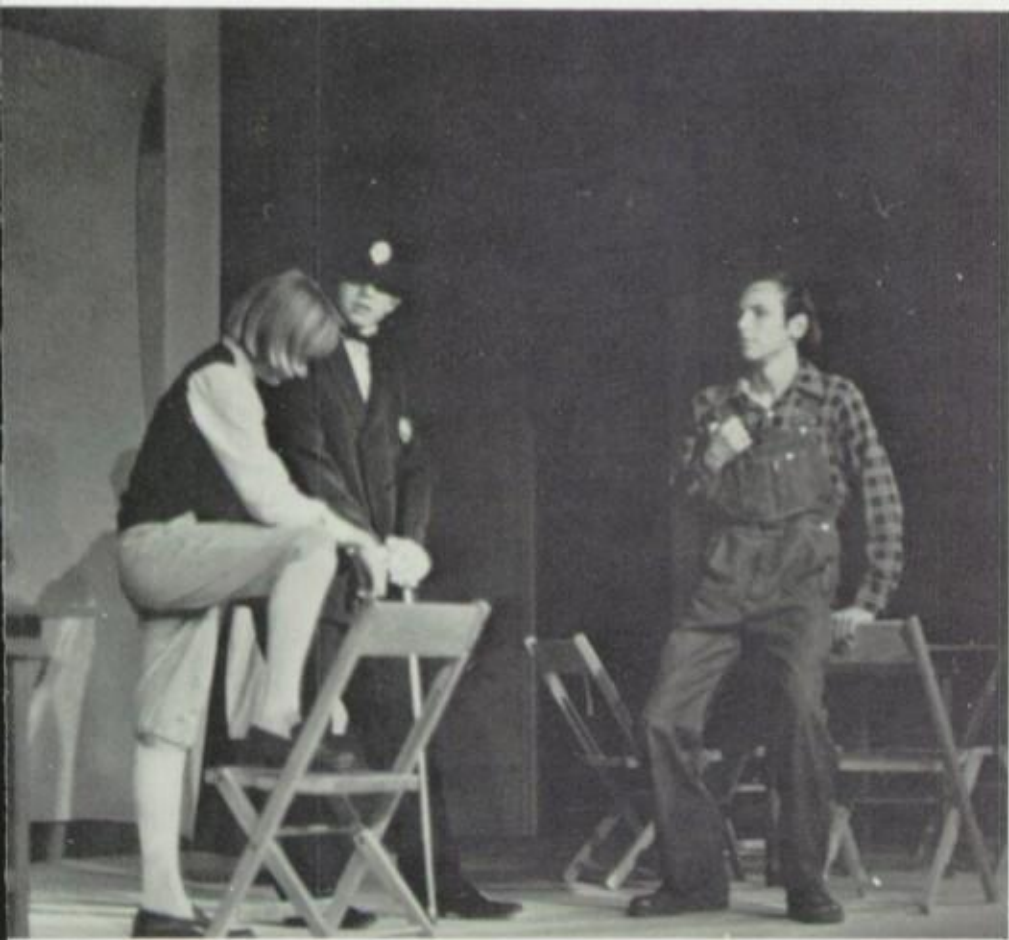

FROM: CHRISTY (P.S. Do you like my typing???????)

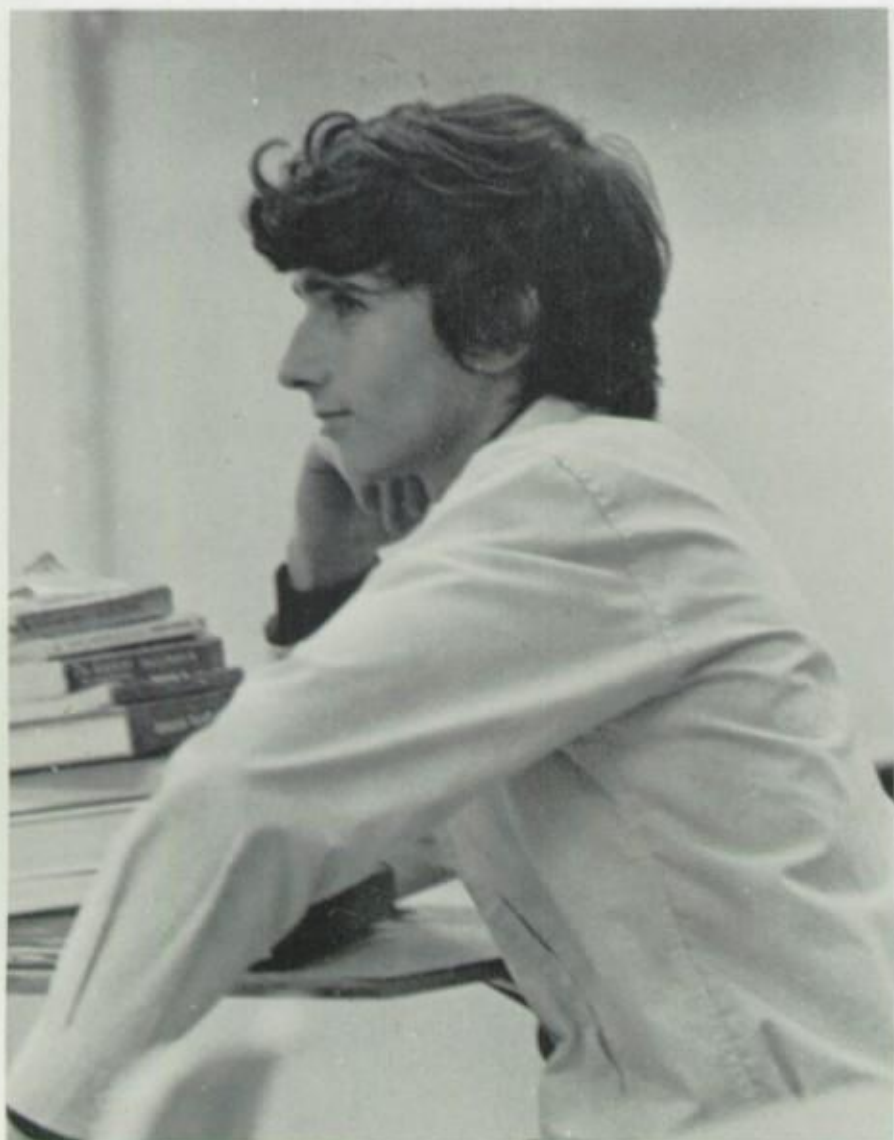

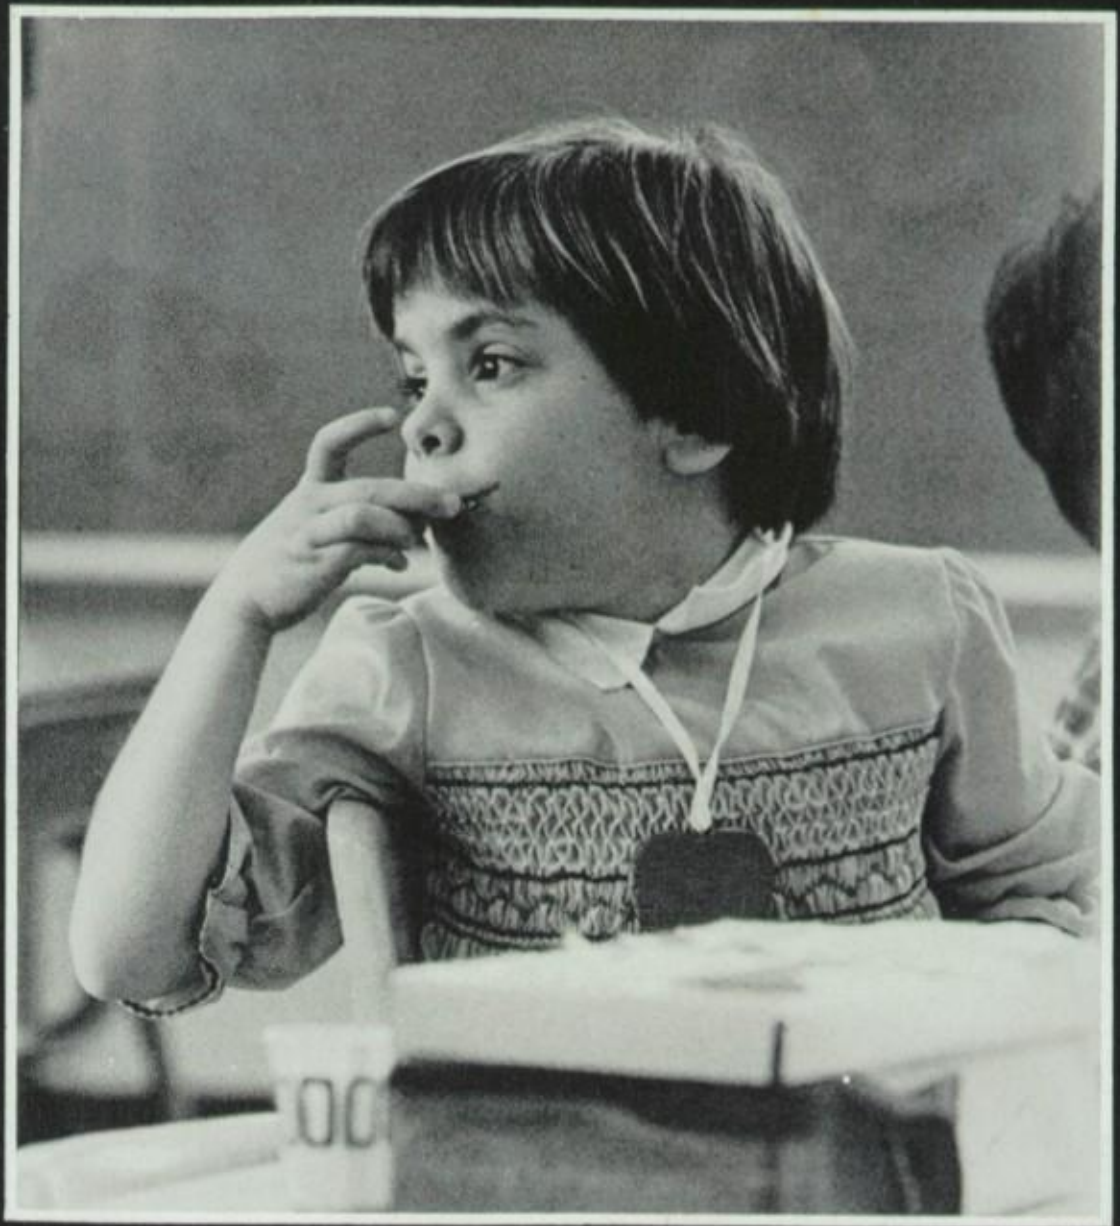

CLASSES

Chris,

Did I tell you about my sister working on the Junior-Senior. She's never home, she's always working on it. She says boys are dumb 'cause they won't help.
Are you going to the Carmel hoop game? We're supposed to win.

Chris,
How did you do on that English test? I did pretty well, better than I did on the last one. Do you realize I have known you for 10 years, ever since pre school. Did you hear about Hope dissecting that fish with the eel in its stomach. It was cool.

What I really wanted to know is, are you going to the football game Friday and then the Pizza hut afterwards? What kind of pizza do you like? If you like pepperoni we could share a pizza and watch the game together.

Gotta go and I'll see ya tomorrow!

Charles

Charlie-

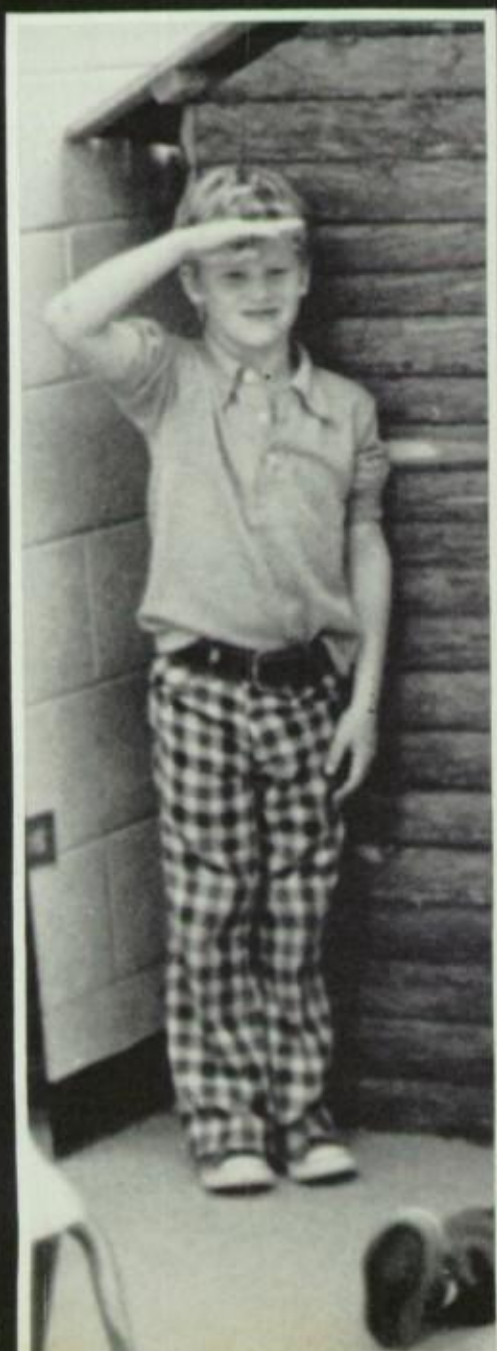

I really had a good time at the Pizza Hut. It is good to know ~~at~~ we have something in common. Remember in six th grade when the only thing we had in common was the beaded chokers everyone wore.

Are you trying out for basketball? I hope so! I'd love to come watch you play. I might try out for the girls' team, but knowing me, I probably won't make it.

Thanks again for the the game.

great time I had at

Love, Chris

Chris,

I could hardly believe I made the basketball team. Our first game is next week. Will you really come watch me? It's almost Christmas vacation time now, and I'm really looking forward to it. I'll never forget in the fifth grade when we had to draw someone's name and give them a Christmas present. You drew mine, and you actually gave me a pair of white socks.

Please come watch me at the game, and see ya at school.

Love, Charlie

Dear Charlie,

I really will come watch you play basketball. I'm glad you made the team. I remember when you first made the J.V. team - you were so proud. You were in the eighth grade then. Speaking of the eighth grade - remember when I got thrown out of 155 lab one day for not wearing my lab clothes? You couldn't stop laughing for the rest of the period.

Well, I've got to go now, I've really got a lot of homework. See ya tonight!

Love,
Chris

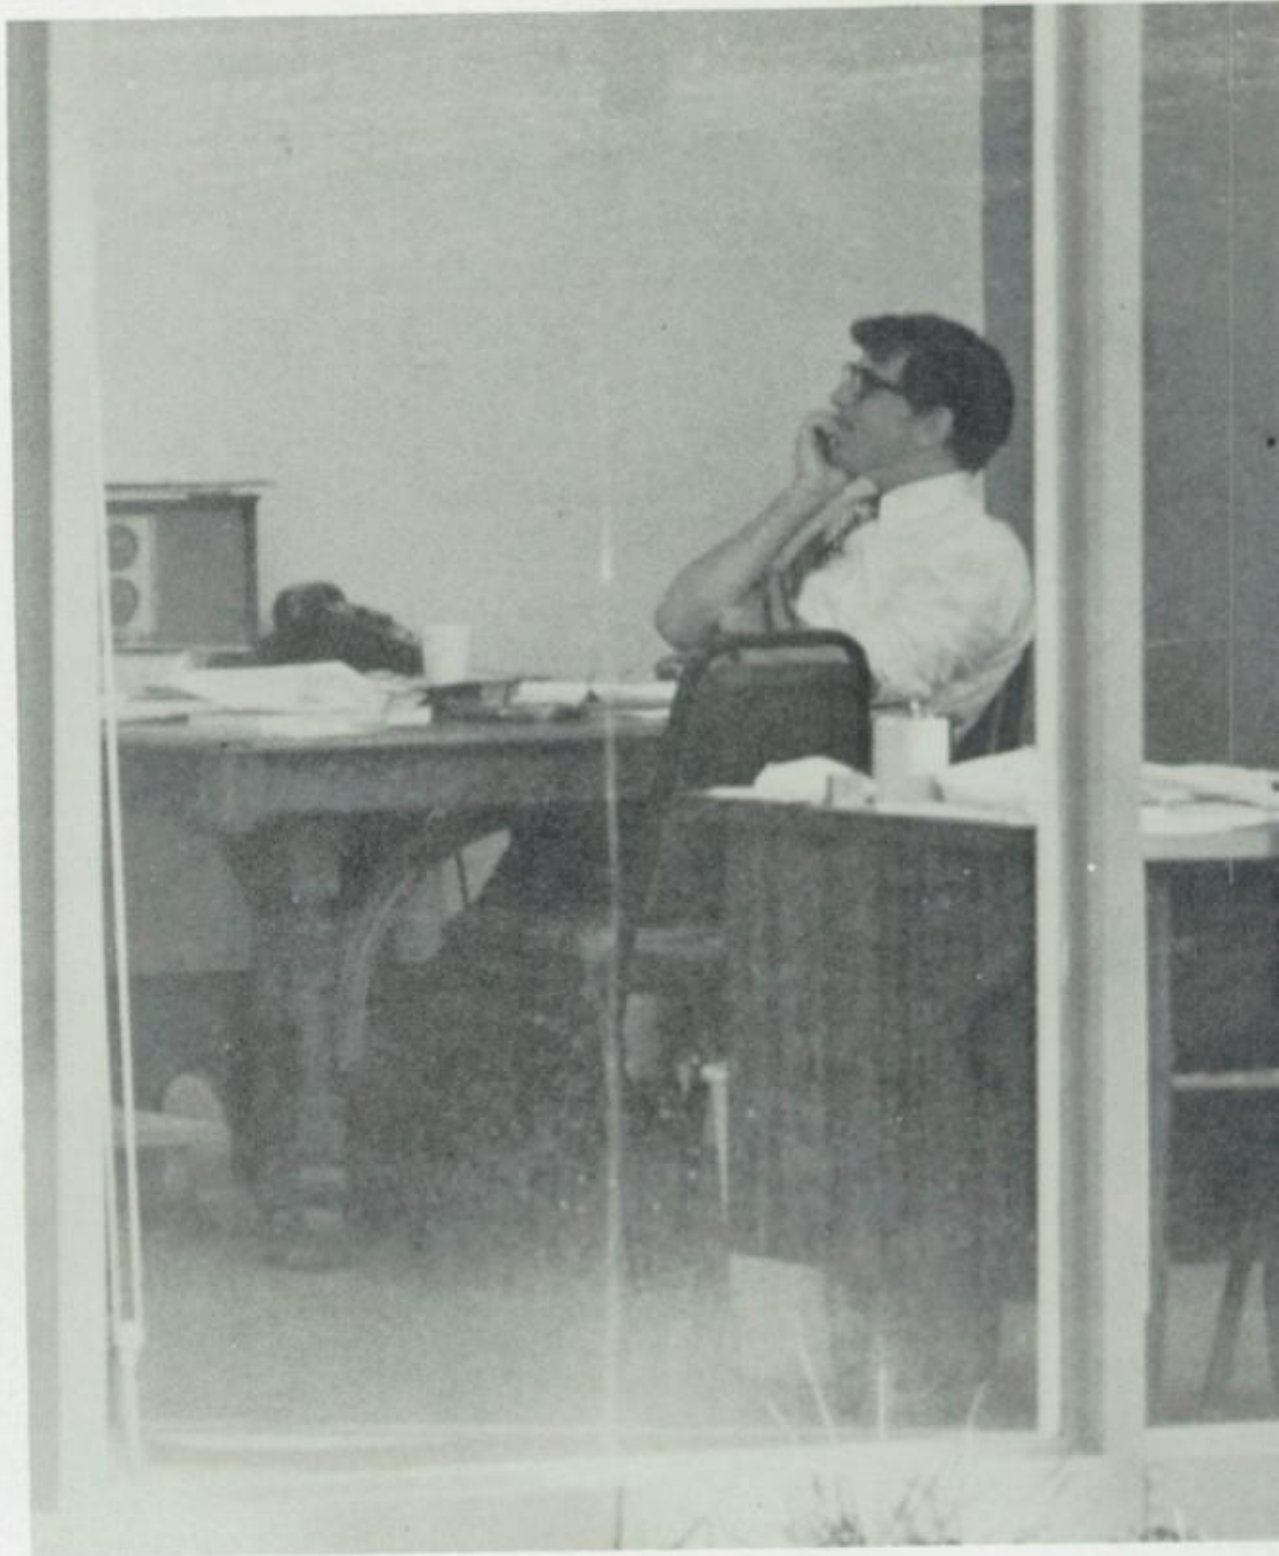

Dear Charlie,

You know you told me earlier, you're favorite teacher was Mr. Bister. I agree, but ~~there are~~ ^{there are} other teachers at school who aren't just ordinary teachers. Mrs. Brown, who is now Mrs. Mackensie ~~and~~ and Mr. Fenninger are 2 of the best teachers at C.D. Classes would not be able to function without good teachers, and we ought to be thankful, we have two teachers as good as Mr. Fenninger and Mrs. Mackensie, at C.D.

See ya' later.

Christy

LATE FRIDAY'S

Dear Chuck,

Have you ever had those late fridays--the afternoon attacks? Have you ever seriously considered committing your best friend to the nearest loony bin? Some of the antics one sees on fridays are incredible--Halloween parades in February, paranoids loose (they think Fenninger is going to nab them), schizophrenic attacks (people thinking they're George Atlas Jr., gorillas, Vietnam vets, the REAL McCoys, Cheerleaders, and God). Well then you've got the borderline cases that are simply reacting out of boredom (I.E. filling things with newspaper, water, or anything that moves) . . . To top things off, inevitably the administration of- fice runs out of efficient straight jackets. They then resort to the poor quality jackets that students enjoy figuring out how to es- cape. The masters at this game are the "Out-to-lunch-bunch". If you've missed these--I can safely diagnose you as a prime candi- date for Morganton and a major contribution to the problem!! What would we do without FRIDAY AFTERNOONS???!!!

AAAaaRRRRRRrrrrrrAAahhhH!

Love,
Christy

SENIORS

Dear Charlie,

It seems as if we've just come here, but then again it's been 13 long years. All those pizzas, Big Saturdays, and pep rallies count as good memories. I won't mention the F's and D. Halls - they don't count. I'm kind of scared of college, but can't wait. Where are you going?

Love,
Christy

Dear Chris,

I'm counting down the days 'til I'm free! If I get in I'll go to Carolina. Have you heard from anyone yet? I've already been accepted at Georgia but I prefer Carolina. Betty will be there and they've got a great engineering school. Catch you later -

Charlie

Chris,

I really don't think you're so crazy... about missing the teachers. They & a lot of others have helped us a ton. I don't think we oughta mention any of the sad & funny things that have happened - could be self-incriminating!
Ya know, it's just wild to think of how many miles we covered going to & from this school.

See ya soon.

Love ya,
Charlie

Dear Christie,

It's really great to see that we have people affiliated with this school who are willing to donate their time, energy, + capital in order that students like you + I can enjoy such a high quality of education. I really wish there was some way we could show our immense gratitude. It's people like these who we want to thank for caring about our generation's future + I hope that some day we will be able to do the same...

Love,

Charlie

Ivey's

believes in youth.

we invite you to open junior charge account

Ivey's believes in the youth of today and feels that a charge account for you helps you build maturity in handling your finances...and it also helps you establish a good credit rating early. If you're between 16 and 18 years old and are employed, you can apply for a junior charge account at Ivey's. If you are not employed, your parents may counter-sign for you. We invite you to inquire about our junior charge accounts in the credit office of any of our six metropolitan stores.

Charlie, we've really come and gone a long way since I first

Began my book, 13 years ago. But, it's been worth it

The only way I know how to sum up 13 years of my life, is with this poem.

We all need time for contemplation, Especially at the moment of graduation.
We begin to feel an alienation
From our previous situation.

Due to this feeling of disorientation,
We look to the future for compensation and see thirteen years of dedication To the acquisition of the best education Possible, according to our motivation.

When on the night of graduation,
We're all in a state of jubilation,
The time rolls round for meditation.

At this time of glad relation
We yield to the temptation
To look back on the associations
Which will be marred by separation.
We see all the trials and tribulations,
That together as a combination Compose our complete school education.

There can be no duplication
Of these years of our formation.
During which we strived for self-identification.
Looking back with adoration and ahead with anticipation To build our future.

So long Charlie. . . . Love, Christy

I'll see you in two years, Elizabeth!
